A Work of ... Cake?

Promise Made By: Ricky Rew
Expected Minimum Price: £3.00

Not quite art, although you could be forgiven for thinking so. Ricky's fruitcake is the stuff of legend and this lot entitles the winner to one fruitcake baked to order. A weeks notice will be required but it is well worth the wait!

226

What Not To Wear

Promise Made By: Amicus Girls
Expected Minimum Price: £8.00

The Amicus girls will undoubtedly be far better (and certainly less critical) company than Trinny and Susannah as they accompany you on a trip around all that Milton Keynes shops have to offer. Full of advice and just generally good company, the girls will even provide you with a hair and/or beauty makeover if required. Perfect preparation for a big night out or just a great way to spend the day.

Motorcycle Madness

Promise Made By: Gasi Racing/TMS
Expected Minimum Price: £15.00

Possibly one of our star lots this year, courtesy of Gasi Racing and TMS, the winner of this lot will be given four tickets for a six hour endurance motorcycle race held at Silverstone on Saturday 19th September 2009. If you have ever fancied yourself as the next Valentino Rossi or just like to see amazing machines and drivers in action this lot is definitely the one for you. This promises to be a fantastic day for a group of friends or for a family day out and would make a brilliant present too.

Promises, promises...

*"Go after God, who piles on all the riches we could ever manage - do good, be rich in helping others, be extravagantly generous."
1 Timothy 6:18*
